Champion of Champions

The awesome combination of our Club Champion Richard Pegg, Intermediate Champion Wayne Coleman, and Junior Champion Joshua Allan teamed up in the Wellington Champion of Champions final at Manor Park to win by one point – fantastic.

Sam Lang Memorial – Closing Day

About eighty members participated in a terrific day – won in the end by Jill Peterson and Brian McLaughlin, who won the Sam Lang Trophy, Prize Vouchers, and a gift basket each presented by Jim Lang.

New Greenkeepers Fence

All the raw materials are on site – you will see in the new year a new six foot corrugated iron fence built around the wood yard part of the greenkeepers area. Volunteers to assist with building are welcome – please contact either Travis Gawler or Bill Massey.

Holes In One

Since October four members have scored aces – Barrie Sim, Nalin Pratap, Mark Stevens, and while away at Wainuiomata, Awan Hartawan

Christmas Hampers December 9th

Another wonderful turn out of members both in the morning and afternoon shotguns. Winners over all on the day were; Men - Daryll Turley on countback from Tony Holt both 40 points, and Jo Broad on 44 points.

Annual General Meeting

Another successful AGM and golf tournament for those attending. Members enjoyed a superb breakfast, vibrant meeting, and some marvelous golf. The day marked the official naming the bar area as the Tom Caithness Lounge – with Diana Caithness and some family members present for the special moment. Keep your eyes out for the caricature of Tom that has been commissioned and will be hung in the bar soon.

Key People for 2008

John Lambert replaces Evan Green as Men's Club Captain. Elaine Neill continues as Weekend Women's Club Captain. Jennie Ellison is the new Midweek Women's Club Captain replacing Carilyn Banks.

Alan Hunt and Neville Trendle were both re-elected to the Board with Alan also continuing as Board Chairman.

Honorary Members

Congratulations to two colourful long time members who have been awarded Honorary Membership for Life – Mr Jack Puddle, and Mr Bill Milne. These men have contributed to Shandon in many ways, particularly through the 'Wednesday Boys' working group each week.

Staff Changes

Welcome to Kay Okeroa who is the full time office manager, replacing Jo Clark who has moved to the weekend morning shifts.

Frano Pupuke joins John Haley's 'incredibles' in the green-keeping department, replacing Gary Eising who has moved into the concrete business.

Christine Tane now alternates weekend bar shifts with 'our' Maureen.

New Caterers

With Lisa & Marty Tane deciding to move on in February 2008, we have advertised and are interviewing potential candidates currently. Anyone interested or with interested friends please contact Travis.

Holiday Hours

You can find details of the holiday season opening hours for the Office, Bar, Café, and Pro Shop on the club notice board near the match room.

On Line Tee Booking

This new system seems to have settled in well – if you still need assistance with obtaining your password or just using it, please ask Kay or Travis in the office.

We hope to have the long numeric password printed on to your new member card for 2008.

2008 Programme Book

This is due before Christmas and will be available from the match room.

2008 Member Cards & Subscription Invoices

New cards have been ordered, and can be collected from the office from January 1st. Subscription invoices and details of payment options were mailed on the 11th December – if yours didn't arrive around then, please contact us in the office.

Father & Son

Congratulations to Des Reid and Phil Reid winners of this years father and son tournament – the Crundwell Trophy.
